

Welcome to Henllanfallteg Community

What a great community you have chosen to come and live in!

You will find the people of the village and the surrounding areas friendly and helpful so please be sure to say hello and if there is anything you need to know just ask!

Since 1935 the community of Henllanfallteg has comprised of the villages of Llanfallteg, Henllan Amgoed, Cwmfelin Boeth, Hiraeth, and Rhydywrach.

The village hall which is situated in the village of Llanfallteg is home to the Henllanfallteg Community Association a charity whose role it is to maintain and upkeep the village hall and support the whole community.

You will find lots of activities and information here and we recommend a visit.

For any information regarding the hall including bookings or events please see the contact details enclosed.

The Local pub is the Plash, which is a traditional pub run by Christie and Steve. It's a great meeting place for the community and provides tasty home cooked food and many local ales and craft beers.
